

All India Vice -Chancellors Cricket Tournament begins at KU

Srinagar May 25: We can bounce back to our glory and prove our competence not only at the national level but at the international level as well said Mr Nasir Aslam wani minister of state for tourism , housing and urban development while inaugurating the All India Vice -Chancellors cricket tournament at the main cricket ground of the university of Kashmir.

The tournament organised by the Kashmir University ministerial staff (KUMSA) in collaboration with directorate of physical education and sports university of Kashmir has representation from 20 universities of India.

The Minister who was the chief guest on the occasion spelled out the importance of sports in the lives of youth and said that such competitions inculcate the spirit of competitiveness and good will for each other among the sports persons. Wani said that he is proud to be a student of Kashmir University praised present vice chancellor for taking university to the new heights in academics, curricular and extracurricular activities. asserting that events of such nature are important in the lives of universities. The minister said that this event will go a long way in infusing new vigour and enthusiasm in our talent. Saying that times have changed, Nasir Aslam looked forward to the changes for better and appealed youth to work for the development, progress and prosperity of their society.

Vice chancellor Kashmir University who was the guest of honour at the event asked the team members present to the ambassadors from Kashmir and spread our message of peace, brotherhood and good will to their respective states. VC congratulated KUMSA for organising such a big event at the campus and assured them of his full cooperation in their future endeavours as well.

Earlier president KUMSA Ghulam Jeelani wani talked about the achievements of his organisation since its inception . Geelani spelled out the road map of his organisation in promoting he sports culture at the campus and praised vice chancellor Kashmir university for encouraging the sports at the campus and addressing the problems of the employees. He said the tournament will for sure promote, peace love and brother hood amongst all stake holders.

Speaking on the occasion the organisjg secretary of the tournament Farooq Ahmad Bhat extended his thanks o all the teams, the Minster and the University administration for making this mega event a success.

Registrar University of Kashmir, Prof Syed Fayaz , Controller examinations Prof A M shah and director department of sports Prof Nisar Ahmad shared the dice with the other dignitaries.

The first match of the tournament was won by Kashmir University against SKUAST (K)by six wickets. The second match was won by Ajmeer university by two wickets against Jammu university .