

NAAC advisor at KU

KU among few universities to adopt IQAC system: Sham Sunder

Srinagar : Kashmir University is among the few universities in India to have adopted Internal quality assurance system for quality assurance in higher education for the university and its affiliated colleges .

This was stated by Dr M S Sham Sunder deputy advisor National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) a Bangalore based organisation responsible for the accreditation of the universities and colleges in the country.

Dr M S Sham Sunder deputy advisor National Assessment and Accreditation Council was addressing deans of various faculties' heads of the departments at the committee room of the administrative block. The meeting was presided by Vice chancellor Kashmir University Dr Riyaz Punjabi .

Dr sham sunder who is on a visit to Kashmir university to participate at a special award ceremony as guest of honour said that quality assurance is the hall mark of great universes and showed his happiness the way Kashmir University is treading on this direction. Earlier Vice chancellor University of Kashmir Prof Riyaz Punjabi briefed the learned guest about the steps Kashmir University has taken so far to move ahead on the road of quality assurance in higher education. VC also informed the guest that Kashmir University has already completed phase first of e - governance and that in the phase second all the afflicted government collages will be linked to the campus. Director IQAC Prof Mushtaq .A. Qureshi made a power point presentation before the learned guest and spoke about the way KLU has adopted IQAC system over the years. “ We are trying to build faith in all stake holders especially our students “ said Qureshi while spelling out the benefits of the student feedback system which IQAC has adopted at KU. Registrar KU Prof Syed Fayaz Ahmad, Dean academic affairs Prof A R yousuf, DCDC KU Prof Mushtaq A Kaw , Prof Zafar A Reshi and Prof Mohammad Sultan key members IQAC KU were present besides other deans heads and officers of the university .